6 TRUST POLICIES

The Trust has the following policies which promote anti-slavery and human trafficking practices

- Financial Regulations – Provides a framework of governance and steps to ensure all procurement activity is compliant to legislation and best practice including transparency of our supply base
- Child Protection Policy and Safeguarding – The aim is to provide a safe and secure environment for Children and provides a framework of our Schools to identify and support students who are at risk of modern slavery, trafficking or exploitation.

This legal requirement together with the Catholic values and principles that underpin the St Thomas Aquinas Catholic Multi-Academy Trust mean that it is essential that the CMAT ensures not only compliance at local level but also assumes a strategic responsibility to ensure that safeguarding practices are robust and effective in safeguarding and protecting the welfare of all children and young people in its care.

The Trust's Safeguarding Director leads on safeguarding within the Trust. All schools have a Designated Safeguarding Lead and a Safeguarding Governor. Safeguarding is reported on at every Local Governing Body meeting, every Directors' meeting and every Core Executive Board meeting.

The Trust follows each local authority's safeguarding procedures set up by the Local Safeguarding Children Board (LSCB). Child Protection & Safeguarding policies are based on the Department for Education publication "Keeping Children Safe in Education" and all employees are required to have read and understood this document as well as to undertake annual Safeguarding refresher training.

- Whistleblowing Policy – This policy provides a mechanism for encouraging employees to report concerns about potential wrongdoings, including modern slavery risks, without fear of reprisals, victimisation, or subsequent discrimination. It is intended to encourage and enable employees to raise serious concerns within the Trust. It is recognised that cases may have to proceed on a confidential basis.
